(XLIVth Year.) THE (No. 2210.)

MARYLAND GAZETTE.

THURSDAY, MAY 21, 1789.

LONDON, March 5.

[illegible] arrived in town from Flanders, [illegible] which confirm the report of the [illegible] Spanish gazette, giving an account of the [illegible] Austrian standard, and [illegible] dispositions are making in the [illegible] New Castles to receive them.

This is a step which requires the most minute attention of the British nation.

The commotions in Flanders wear a most serious aspect; and we know from the most authentic private advices by the last mails, that the French are preparing 30,000 troops more than necessary to garrison all the strong fortified towns. The states of Flanders may therefore be said to be from this time under the dominion of France.

March 9. From Berlin they write, "We never had more reason to expect a war than at this critical moment; besides the orders which the officers have received to provide themselves with horses, orders have been given to the general military bank, to issue the money necessary to complete the camp hospital, the commanders of which are also ordered to buy the coverings necessary for the beds immediately. This last precaution is only taken when an army is upon the point of going to make a campaign. It is said the king will soon [illegible] accompanied by the prince royal, the duke of Brunswick, general Mollendorff, and prince Ferdinand of Brunswick. Every thing is preparing at Custrin. Profits the fortress of Grandenz, which is soon to be put in its ancient state, commands the course of the Vistula, and can inundate the whole country."

Advices from the Baltic assure us, that both Russia and Prussia are laying up immense quantities of all kinds of grain in their magazines, which makes people there believe a rupture between those two powers to be near at hand.

March 12. The famous Dr. Cadogan has quintupled his fortune by official stocks, and has a train of 24 horses and 6 servants every morning at 6 in the morning [illegible] just as the dawn is threatening with [illegible] light.

At Newmarket [illegible] Sir [illegible] was [illegible] Mrs [illegible] Colonel Thornton, Thornville [illegible] all the [illegible]

This kite had been then taken, and, as is the custom, [illegible] and [illegible] and rupert of [illegible] and it is further held a duty, that if the same kite should be taken by other persons, they should [illegible] and run him off likewise.

Some years ago a horse was killed in this way, [illegible] being then [illegible] removed to have been taken by [illegible] A proof of which has been doubted, that herons [illegible]

On Monday last [illegible] young man, servant to a blacksmith at Newbury, [illegible] for a wager of five shillings, [illegible] 309 in number. He was allowed two hours to perform it in, he ate the first 55 pockets in three minutes, the remaining 55 were tried, and being too much done, a quart of milk was drunk with them, and the whole [illegible] in fifteen minutes.

March 13. They write from Vienna of the 14th ult. that the regiments are completing with all possible dispatch. Putrid fevers have made great havock among the officers as well as private in Hungary. Recruits are sending off in vast numbers to supply the deficiencies occasioned by the ravages of the above disorder. Even at that moment they had no intelligence of its diminution; but, on the contrary, it seemed to increase in spite of the aide of medicine.

HOUSE of LORDS.

TUESDAY, March 10.

The archbishop of Canterbury, the lord chancellor, the marquis of Cleveland, lord Sydney, the duke of Chandos, and the earl of Salisbury, being in their robes, and seated, the gentleman usher of the black rod was sent to the commons to desire their immediate attendance; and the speaker being at the bar, attended with a great number of members,

The lord chancellor delivered the following speech to both houses:

"My lords and gentlemen,

"I am directed, not thinking it to be proper here this day in his royal person, has been pleased to cause a commission to be issued under his great seal, authorizing and commanding the commissioners who are appointed by former letters patent to hold this parliament to open and declare certain further causes for holding the same, which commission you will now hear read."

And the same being read accordingly, the chancellor spoke as follows:

"In obedience to his majesty's commands, and by virtue of the commission, already mentioned to you, one of which has now been read, we proceed to lay before you such further matters as his majesty has judged proper to be now communicated to his parliament.

"His majesty being, by the blessing of Providence, happily restored from the severe indisposition with which he has been afflicted, and being enabled to attend to the public affairs of his kingdom, has commanded us to convey to you his warmest acknowledgements for the additional proofs which you have given of your affectionate attachment to his person, and of your zealous concern for the honour and interests of his crown, and the security and good government of his dominions.

"The interruption which has necessarily been occasioned to the public business will, his majesty doubts not, afford you an additional inducement to apply yourselves, with as little delay as possible, to the different objects of national concern which require your attention.

"His majesty has likewise ordered us to acquaint you, that since the close of the last session he has concluded a treaty of defensive alliance with his good brother the king of Prussia, copies of which will be laid before you; that his majesty's endeavours were employed, during the last summer, in conjunction with his allies, in order to prevent, as much as possible, the extension of hostilities in the north, and to manifest his desire of effecting a general pacification: that no opportunity will be neglected, on his part, to promote this salutary object; and that he has, in the mean time, the satisfaction of receiving from all foreign courts continued assurances of their friendly dispositions to this country."

"My lords and gentlemen,

"We are commanded by his majesty to acquaint you, that the estimates for the current year will forthwith be laid before you; and that he is persuaded of your readiness to make the necessary provisions for the several branches of the public service."

"My lords and gentlemen,

"We have it particularly in charge from his majesty to assure you, that you cannot so effectually meet the most earnest wish of his majesty's heart, as by persevering in your uniform exertions for the public welfare, and by improving every occasion to promote the prosperity of his faithful people, from whom his majesty has received such repeated and affecting marks of invariable zeal, loyalty and attachment, and whose happiness he must ever consider as inseparable from his own."

After which lord Chesterfield rose, and moved an humble address in answer to the same, which was seconded by lord Cathcart. Earl Stanhope spoke afterwards, and the question being put, the address was agreed to, nemine dissentiente.

Lord Morton then moved a congratulatory message to the queen, which was seconded by lord Hawkesbury, and their lordships directed to wait upon her majesty with the same.

Lord Hawkesbury afterwards moved the order of the day for the house to resolve itself into a committee on the further consideration of the bill, entitled, "An act to provide for the care of his majesty's royal person, and for the administration of the royal authority during the continuance of his majesty's illness." And the same having been read, his lordship moved to discharge the order, which was carried.

His lordship observed, that his majesty's happy recovery, and the proceedings of the day, having entirely done away the object of the bill, he should move, "that the bill be rejected," which was agreed to by the house.

March 14. It is not unlikely but that fresh attempts will be made towards finding out a north-west passage, in consequence of the discoveries made by capt. Dixon, when on a trading expedition to that part of the American continent, an account of which has lately been published: however exploded the pompous accounts of the Spanish admiral de Fonte may have been, there now seems to be a degree of probability in that story, as the islands discovered by Dixon are certainly near the entrance of de Fonte's Strait, and further researches may possibly prove the truth of that which hitherto has been deemed a fiction.

March 14. Nothing decisive as for peace or war has been yet settled by the Swedish diet.

The Russians are said to have taken Gallatz, in which they found great plunder.

All the imperial troops in Sclavonia, the Banat, Croatia, Esclavonia and Moldavia, are moving towards the frontiers. The regiments of hussars are reinforced with 500 each.

KINGSTON, (Jamaica) April 8.

Since the commencement of the present month, 14 sail of large vessels are said to have left Port-au-Prince, for America, to load with flour.

The demand for flour in St. Domingo has already affected the market here—that very necessary article has considerably risen in price, and if the exports which are talked of take place, it will probably be soon worth as much here as is now said to be at Port-au-Prince, 6l. per barrel.

QUEBEC, April 13.

By a letter from Niagara we learn they are in great distress for want of the necessaries of life, wheat 20s. York currency per bushel, and difficult to be got at that price; oats, &c. have been substituted for beef, &c. Potatoes with salt pork, got by great intreaty from the soldiers, is almost the constant diet of the writer, who is doubtful how he and his neighbours will be able to spin out life until next harvest.

NEW-YORK, May 6.

Extract from the register of the parish church of St. Dominick, dated April 1, 1788.

"From this day to the 30th of June next, the owners and captains of foreign vessels, now riding in the free ports of this colony are allowed to fetch from foreign ones, flour and biscuit, providing themselves previous to their departure with proper clearances from the Bureaus of Entrepot established in those free ports to which they must necessarily return; those two articles will be equally admitted in bottoms coming directly from foreign ports, as well as every other enumerated in the 2d section of his most christian majesty's arret, dated August 30, 1784.

"Flour and biscuit will be subjected to a duty of one per cent. and government being determined to adhere strictly to the rules prescribed by the aforesaid arret concerning the importation and exportation of prohibited articles; prudence will of course point out to the shippers of wheat and flour the danger of introducing any there."

Office of the consulat of France,
New-York, May 9, 1789.

THE PRESIDENT'S HOUSEHOLD.

Whereas, all servants and others, employed to procure provisions, or supplies, for the household of the PRESIDENT of the UNITED STATES, will be furnished with monies for those purposes, Notice is therefore given, That no accounts, for the payment of which the public might be considered as responsible, are to be opened with any of them.

SAMUEL FRAUNCES, Steward of the household.

May 4th, 1789.

We are happy to inform our readers, in addition to the preceding notification, that we understand THE PRESIDENT is determined to pursue that system of regularity and economy in his household, which has always marked his public and private life. As a proof of this we learn, that the steward is obliged, by his articles of agreement, to exhibit, weekly, a fair statement of the receipts, and expenditures of monies by him, for and on account of THE PRESIDENT's household, to such person as THE PRESIDENT may appoint to inspect the same; together with the several bills and receipts of payment for those articles which may be purchased by him, where such bills and receipts can be obtained. And it is likewise strongly inculcated upon the steward, to guard against any waste or extravagance, that might be committed by the servant of the family.

HOUSE of REPRESENTATIVES OF THE UNITED STATES.

FRIDAY, MAY 8.

Mr. Gerry, from the committee appointed to prepare a bill prescribing the mode of collecting the revenue, introduced a temporary law, which was read, and a hundred copies ordered to be printed for the house.

Mr. Smith, of South-Carolina, at this moment came in, and informed the house, that the president was ready to receive their address. The house immediately arose, and following the speaker, attended the president in the room adjoining, where the following address was presented by the speaker, in the name of the house.

THE ADDRESS OF THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES TO GEORGE WASHINGTON, PRESIDENT OF THE UNITED STATES.

SIR,

THE representatives of the people of the United States, present their congratulations on the event by which your fellow-citizens have attested the pre-eminence of your merit. You have long held the first place in their esteem—you have often received tokens of their affection—you now possess the only proof that remained of their gratitude for your services, of their reverence for your wisdom, and of their confidence in your virtues. You enjoy the highest, because the truest honour of being the first magistrate, by the unanimous choice of the freest people on the face of the earth.

We well know the anxieties with which you must have obeyed a summons, from the repose, reserved for your declining years, into public scenes of which you had taken your leave for ever—But the obedience was due to the occasion.—It is already applauded by the universal joy which welcomes you to your station, and we cannot doubt that it will be rewarded with all the satisfaction, with which an ardent love for your fellow-citizens must review successful efforts to promote their happiness.

This anticipation is not justified merely by the past experience of your signal services. It is particularly suggested by the pious impressions, under which you commence your administration, and the enlightened maxims by which you mean to conduct it. We feel with you the strongest obligations to adore the invisible hand which has led the American people through so many difficulties, to cherish a conscious responsibility for the destiny of republican liberty, and to seek the only sure means of preserving and recommending the precious deposit in a system of legislation, founded on the principles of an honest policy, and directed by the spirit of a diffused patriotism.

The question arising out of the fifth article of the constitution, will receive all the attention demanded by its importance, and will, we trust, be decided under the influence of all the considerations to which you allude.

In forming the pecuniary provisions for the executive department, we shall not lose sight of a wish resulting from motives which give it a peculiar claim to our regard.—Your resolution, in a moment critical to the liberties of your country, to renounce all personal emolument, was among the many presages of your patriotic services, which have been amply fulfilled; and your scrupulous adherence now to the law then imposed on yourself, cannot fail to demonstrate the purity, which it increases the lustre of a character, which has so many titles to admiration.

Such are the sentiments which we have thought fit to address to you: They flow from our own hearts, and we verily believe, that among the millions we represent, there is not a virtuous citizen whose heart will disown them.

All that remains is, that we join in your fervent supplication for the blessings of Heaven on our country; and that we add our own for the choicest of those blessings on the most beloved of her citizens.

To which his excellency was pleased to make the following reply:

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR very affectionate address produces emotions which I know not how to express. I feel that my past endeavours in the service of my country are far overpaid by its goodness: and I fear much that my future ones may not fulfil your kind anticipation. All that I can promise is, that they will be invariably directed by an honest and an ardent zeal.—Of this resource my heart assures me. For all beyond, I rely on the wisdom and patriotism of those with whom I am to co-operate, and a continuance of the blessings of Heaven on our beloved country.

G. WASHINGTON.

After this, the president retiring, the members of the house returned to their seats.

A motion which was laid on the table the 4th inst. respecting a request to the president, that he would procure an estimate of exports and imports, entries and clearances, from the several states in the union, for 12 months previous to the fourth of March last, was taken up, and after sundry amendments, one of which was, appointing a committee to attend to the business, the motion was adopted.

The order of the day was then called for, and the house went into a committee of the whole, when the second reading of the bill ascertaining the rates of impost was attended to.

Dr. Tucker proposed, that the duty on distilled spirits, Jamaica proof, should be reduced to six cents per gallon—this brought on a debate which lasted till the house adjourned.

SATURDAY, MAY 9.

The bill for the collection of the impost was read a second time and ordered to be referred to a committee of the whole.

The house then went into a committee on the impost bill.

Mr. Page in the chair.

A proposition was made to lower the whole of the enumerated articles about one fifth; arguments were advanced in support of this measure by Mr. Ames, Mr. Gerry and Mr. Boudinot, they feared they were laid too high for collection, and that they would defeat the object of revenue which gentlemen had in view.

Mr. Fitzsimons, Mr. Madison and Mr. Sherman, were for the duties remaining as fixed by the committee and by the house, the subject had already been discussed three times and nothing new was now offered to induce a change of sentiments, they did not think the duties were too high, nothing if compared to what other nations paid, at best whether they were so or not was mere matter of opinion, but even these high duties it was to be feared, would prove insufficient for the public wants.

The morning was spent in this discussion, when at length upon repeated calls for the question it was put, and the committee divided, 19 for reducing the duties and 26 against it.

PITTSBURGH, April 18.

Extract of a letter from Kentucky, dated March 2.

"A general and uninterrupted trade has taken place between the inhabitants of this country and those of the Spanish settlements at New-Orleans; several boats, loaded with goods, to a very considerable amount, have arrived here—and in return, they took large quantities of tobacco, beef, corn, &c. and that, from every appearance, this traffic was likely to be continued and carried on with the greatest alacrity, which cannot fail proving of the most infinite mutual advantage.

April 25. A report being circulated the beginning of this week, that the Indians had killed a white man who was working at captain James O'Harra's saw mill, about one mile from this town, on the opposite side of the Allegany river, it is with singular pleasure we can contradict it, and assure the public that no circumstance whatever has happened, that could give the least ground for such a propagation.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.

The king of Sweden has published an ordinance, ordering four fast days to be held during the present year. The critical situation of affairs has induced his majesty to judge it necessary. It concludes with the following words, deserving of being handed down to posterity, for their dignity of sentiment, and patriotic worth:

"May a pure and sincere affection for our country, strengthen those ties of friendship, which bind us to you and you with one another! fleeting is this short, terrestrial and laborious life; and with it vanishes that inequality of rank, which Providence has placed between you and us. May we then be enabled to render an account, to our common Judge, without reproaches to lay to our own charge, we, for the commands that we have given, and the obedience we have required, on our part; you, on the manner in which you have shewn your obedience."

Extract of a letter from a reputable house in Lisbon, to their friend in this city, dated March 24, 1789.

"The Portuguese squadron is on the eve of sailing for their station in the Straits, to keep the Algerines in, so that your flag may come very safe to Portugal and Spain, without the Straits: the risk is thought so little of here, that we can get it wrote at one if not at one half per cent. Please to have this information put in your public papers, to spread through the United States, to act against the false advertisements in the European papers, to intimidate adventurers, and raise the premium of insurance."

The SCOTCH CLOTH, it is said, will be for a while the colour of the national dress of the United States. It was worn by our beloved president on the day of his inauguration. It accords with the present state of our country, just coming out of a wilderness condition, but exhibiting at the same time, marks of life, vigour and beauty, and promising a plentiful harvest of national prosperity.

A malt-house and brewery are now erecting in this city, by Messrs. Samuel Morris and son, which will be 104 feet in front, and 90 in depth. This noble building, devoted to one of the most useful manufactures, proves in the clearest manner the increased consumption of malt liquors, and fully justifies the duty about to be imposed upon spirits by the congress of the United States.

In the house of representatives of the United States on Tuesday last, Mr. Benson, from the committee appointed to consider and report, whether any or what style or titles should be given to the president and vice-president, reported, that it would be improper to give any other than those mentioned in the constitution.—This report the house accepted.

We hear the state of Connecticut are about presenting every member of the new congress with cloth sufficient for a suit of cloaths; and that it is to be the manufacture of that state, and of one colour.

May 13. A gentleman, who has lately visited the country between the Delaware and the Susquehanna, has calculated that there are SUGAR MAPLE TREES enough in the state of Pennsylvania to make as much sugar as could be consumed in the United States. This maple sugar has been examined in Philadelphia, and yields loaves equal in quality to that which is made from the juice of the West-India sugar cane. To freemen, its sweetness ought to be enhanced by the reflection, that it is not stained with the sweat and blood of negro slaves.

Extract of a letter from Madras, dated September 28.

"Since writing the foregoing, I have to inform you, that hostilities are once more commenced between the English and Tippoo Saib, (the late Hyder Ally's son) who, from the time of the English first settling upon the coast, to this day, has been their most inveterate enemy, having always declared them the ravagers of the country. He is allowed to be the greatest military genius of the east, and commands the greatest army of any of the eastern princes. During the late Carnatic war, the English had every thing to fear from so formidable an enemy—Hyder himself could command an army of 200,000 men, while his son, at the head of a numerous army, over-run the whole Carnatic, and burst like a torrent upon their enemies, taking some of the most capital places. The great pains which Hyder always took to train his son up to revenge his country's wrongs, does him honour. That prince has always declared his predilection for the French. Since our arrival, a detachment has been sent to the northward, to reinforce the English in that quarter. A battle since has taken place, and two battalions of the company's troops have been entirely cut off: the English have, however, some advantage on their side, as they have taken two of Tippoo Saib's forts."

WINCHESTER, May 13.

Extract of a letter from Morgan-town, to the Printer hereof, dated May 4, 1789.

"The Indians have lately paid us a visit—about 25 miles from this place, a few days ago, they killed two men, 2 women and two children. In another part of the country they stole some horses and carried off a man, but being pursued the horses were retaken.—The horses were laden with articles they had plundered the inhabitants of, Indian match coats, &c. &c. all of which fell into the hands of the pursuers.—A skirmish took place between the savages and those who followed them,—no body killed on either side."

Mr. GARDETTE,

PENTIST,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he is at present at Annapolis, where he means to remain a few weeks, he has taken lodgings at Mr. G. MANN's. His dentifrice, carefully put up in penny pots, may be had, with directions, at the bar; and in future at the post-office in Baltimore. Price 2/6.

Dr. FREDERICK RAFF,

From SURINAM!!!

Late from PHILADELPHIA,

RESPECTFULLY informs the public, that he now resides in this city, and presents himself to the service of all who may please to employ him as DOCTOR of PHYSIC, SURGERY and MIDWIFERY. As he has by long experience (being more than twenty years in the army) became well acquainted with the practic parts of the different branches, as well as the theory, he hopes to be a useful member of community. As the doctor has assisted many cases of the cancer, and is particularly well acquainted with that disease, and has credentials for his superior abilities in curing all cancers, whether internal or external, he hopes to be of service to all who may make application to him for his prescriptions.

N. B. There is now, in this city, some on whom he has been successful enough to effect a cure, though thought beyond all hope. The doctor has medicine for sale.

NOTICE is hereby given, that we, the commissioners appointed to build a court house, prison and prison yard, at the Head of Elk, in Cecil county, intend to petition the general assembly at their next session, for a further sum of money to be levied on the inhabitants of said county, to enable us to finish and complete said court house, prison and prison yard.

Pursuant to the will of RICHARD BENNETT LLOYD, Esquire, deceased, the subscriber will EXPOSE to PUBLIC SALE, on the premises, on Monday the 27th of July next, if fair, if not the next fair day,

A PART of that very valuable TRACT of LAND called Worton Manor, in Kent county, delightfully situated on the Chesapeake Bay; the soil of this land can be exceeded by none, being well adapted to every species of grain, tobacco and grass; and what renders it still more valuable is the immense quantity of fine timber growing on it of every kind, a good navigation, and well situated for a variety of markets.—It will be laid off into small and convenient lots, and sold on a credit of three years, by annual instalments. Good and approved securities will be required.

RAN away from the subscriber, living in Baltimore county, a short black well set negro woman, by name HANNAH; she formerly was the property of Thomas King, presented to him by Mr. Henry Welch, about 27 years of age; the said woman has a scar on one of her cheeks, but do not remember whether right or left, and has six toes on each foot. It is probable she may change her name and pass for a free woman. The said woman absconded from her master on Whitsuntide, 1785. Whoever takes up the said Hannah, and secures her in any gaol, so that the subscriber gets her again, shall receive three pounds, paid by due to the occaſion. It is already applauded by the univerſal joy which welcomes you to your ſtation, and we cannot doubt that it will be rewarded with all the ſatisfaction, with which an ardent love for your fellow-citizens muſt review ſucceſsful efforts to promote their happineſs.

This anticipation is not juſtified merely by the paſt experience of your ſignal ſervices. It is particularly ſuggeſted by the pious impreſſions under which you commence your adminiſtration, and the enlightened maxims by which you mean to conduct it. We feel with you the ſtrongeſt obligations to adore the inviſible hand which has led the American people through ſo many difficulties, to cheriſh a conſcious reſponſibility for the deſtiny of republican liberty, and to ſeek the only ſure means of preſerving and recommending the precious depoſit in a ſyſtem of legiſlation, founded on the principles of an honeſt policy, and directed by the ſpirit of a diffuſed patriotiſm.

The queſtion ariſing out of the fifth article of the conſtitution, will receive all the attention demanded by its importance, and will, we truſt, be decided under the influence of all the conſiderations to which you allude.

In forming the pecuniary proviſions for the executive department, we ſhall not loſe ſight of a wiſh reſulting from motives which give it a peculiar claim to our regard.—Your reſolution, in a moment critical to the liberties of your country, to renounce all perſonal emolument, was among the many preſages of your patriotic ſervices, which have been amply fulfilled; and your ſcrupulous adheſence now to the law then impoſed on yourſelf, cannot fail to demonſtrate the purity, which increaſes the luſtre of a character, which has ſo many titles to admiration.

Such are the ſentiments which we have thought fit to addreſs to you: They flow from our own hearts, and we verily believe, that among the millions we repreſent, there is not a virtuous citizen whoſe heart will diſown them.

All that remains is, that we join in your fervent ſupplication for the bleſſings of Heaven on our country; and that we add our own for the choiceſt of thoſe bleſſings on the moſt beloved of her citizens.

To which his excellency was pleaſed to make the following reply:

GENTLEMEN,

YOUR very affectionate addreſs produces emotions which I know not how to expreſs. I feel that my paſt endeavours in the ſervice of my country are far overpaid by its goodneſs: and I fear much that my future ones may not fulfil your kind anticipation. All that I can promiſe is, that they will be invariably directed by an honeſt and an ardent zeal.—Of this reſource my heart aſſures me. For all beyond, I rely on the wiſdom and patriotiſm of thoſe with whom I am to co-operate, and a continuance of the bleſſings of Heaven on our beloved country.

G. WASHINGTON.

After this, the preſident retiring, the members of the houſe returned to their ſeats.

A motion which was laid on the table the 4th inſt. reſpecting a requeſt to the preſident, that he would procure an eſtimate of exports and imports, entries and clearances, from the ſeveral States in the union, for 12 months previous to the fourth of March laſt, was taken up, and after ſundry amendments, one of which was, appointing a committee to attend to the buſineſs, the motion was adopted.

The order of the day was then called for, and the houſe went into a committee of the whole, when the ſecond reading of the bill aſcertaining the rates of impoſt was attended to.

Dr. Tucker propoſed, that the duty on diſtilled ſpirits, Jamaica proof, ſhould be reduced to ſix cents per gallon—this brought on a debate which laſted till the houſe adjourned.

SATURDAY, MAY 9.

The bill for the collection of the impoſt was read a ſecond time and ordered to be referred to a committee of the whole.

The houſe then went into a committee on the impoſt bill.

Mr. Page in the chair.

A propoſition was made to lower the whole of the enumerated articles about one fifth; arguments were advanced in ſupport of this meaſure by Mr. Ames, Mr. Gerry and Mr. Boudinot, they feared they were laid too high for collection, and that they would defeat the object of revenue which gentlemen had in view.

Mr. Fitzſimons, Mr. Madiſon and Mr. Sherman, were for the duties remaining as fixed by the committee and by the houſe, the ſubject had already been diſcuſſed three times and nothing new was now offered to induce a change of ſentiments, they did not think the duties were too high, nothing if compared to what other nations paid, at beſt whether they were ſo or not was mere matter of opinion, but even theſe high duties it was to be feared, would prove inſufficient for the public wants.

The morning was ſpent in this diſcuſſion, when at length upon repeated calls for the queſtion it was put, and the committee divided, 19 for reducing the duties and 26 againſt it.

PITTSBURGH, April 18.

Extract of a letter from Kentucky, dated March 2.

"A general and uninterrupted trade has taken place between the inhabitants of this country and thoſe of the Spaniſh ſettlements at New-Orleans; ſeveral boats, loaded with goods, to a very conſiderable amount, have arrived here—and in return, they took large quantities of tobacco, beef, corn, &c. and that, from every appearance, this traffic was likely to be continued and carried on with the greateſt alacrity, which cannot fail proving of the moſt infinite mutual advantage.

April 25. A report being circulated the beginning of this week, that the Indians had killed a white man who was working at captain James O'Harra's ſaw mill, about one mile from this town, on the oppoſite ſide of the Allegany river, it is with ſingular pleaſure we can contradict it, and aſſure the public that no circumſtance whatever has happened, that could give the leaſt ground for ſuch a propagation.

PHILADELPHIA, May 9.

The king of Sweden has publiſhed an ordinance, ordering four faſt days to be held during the preſent year. The critical ſituation of affairs has induced his majeſty to judge it neceſſary. It concludes with the following words, deſerving of being handed down to poſterity, for their dignity of ſentiment, and patriotic worth:

"May a pure and ſincere affection for our country, ſtrengthen thoſe ties of friendſhip, which bind us to you and you with one another! fleeting is this ſhort, terreſtrial and laborious life; and with it vaniſhes that inequality of rank, which Providence has placed between you and us. May we then be enabled to render an account to our common Judge, without reproaches to lay to our own charge, we, for the commands that we have given, and the obedience we have required, on our part; you, on the manner in which you have ſhewn your obedience."

Extract of a letter from a reputable houſe in Liſbon, to their friend in this city, dated March 24, 1789.

"The Portugueſe ſquadron is on the eve of ſailing for their ſtation in the Straits, to keep the Algerines in, ſo that your flag may come very ſafe to Portugal and Spain, without the Straits; the riſk is thought ſo little of here, that we can get it wrote at one if not at one half per cent. Pleaſe to have this information put in your public papers, to ſpread through the United States, to act againſt the falſe advertiſements in the European papers, to intimidate adventurers, and raiſe the premium of inſurance."

The BOTTLE GREEN, it is ſaid, will be for a while the colour of the national dreſs of the United States. It was worn by our beloved preſident on the day of his inauguration. It accords with the preſent ſtate of our country, juſt coming out of a wilderneſs condition, but exhibiting at the ſame time, marks of life, vigour and beauty, and promiſing a plentiful harveſt of national proſperity.

A malt-houſe and brewery are now erecting in this city, by Meſſrs. Samuel Morris and ſon, which will be 104 feet in front, and 90 in depth. This noble building, devoted to one of the moſt uſeful manufactures, proves in the cleareſt manner the increaſed conſumption of malt liquors, and fully juſtifies the duty about to be impoſed upon ſpirits by the congreſs of the United States.

In the houſe of repreſentatives of the United States on Tueſday laſt, Mr. Benſon, from the committee appointed to conſider and report, whether any or what ſtyle or titles ſhould be given to the preſident and vice-preſident, reported, that it would be improper to give any other than thoſe mentioned in the conſtitution.—This report the houſe accepted.

We hear the ſtate of Connecticut are about preſenting every member of the new congreſs with cloth ſufficient for a ſuit of cloaths; and that it is to be the manufacture of that ſtate, and of one colour.

May 13. A gentleman, who has lately viſited the country between the Delaware and the Suſquehanna, has calculated that there are SUGAR MAPLE TREES enough in the ſtate of Pennſylvania to make as much ſugar as could be conſumed in the United States. This maple ſugar has been examined in Philadelphia, and yields loaves equal in quality to that which is made from the juice of the Weſt-India ſugar cane. To freemen, its ſweetneſs ought to be enhanced by the reflection, that it is not ſtained with the ſweat and blood of negro ſlaves.

Extract of a letter from Madras, dated September 28.

"Since writing the foregoing, I have to inform you, that hoſtilities are once more commenced between the Engliſh and Tippoo Saib, (the late Hyder Ally's ſon) who, from the time of the Engliſh firſt ſettling upon the coaſt, to this day, has been their moſt inveterate enemy, having always declared them the ravagers of the country. He is allowed to be the greateſt military genius of the eaſt, and commands the greateſt army of any of the eaſtern princes. During the late Carnatic war, the Engliſh had every thing to fear from ſo formidable an enemy—Hyder himſelf could command an army of 200,000 men, while his ſon, at the head of a numerous army, over-run the whole Carnatic, and burſt like a torrent upon their enemies, taking ſome of the moſt capital places. The great pains which Hyder always took to train his ſon up to avenge his country's wrongs, does him honour. That prince has always declared his predileſtion for the French. Since our arrival, a detatchment has been ſent to the northward, to reinforce the Engliſh in that quarter. A battle ſince has taken place, and two battalions of the company's troops have been entirely cut off: the Engliſh have, however, ſome advantage on their ſide, as they have taken two of Tippoo Saib's forts."

WINCHESTER, May 13.

Extract of a letter from Morgan-town, to the Printer hereof, dated May 4, 1789.

"The Indians have lately paid us a viſit—about 15 miles from this place, a few days ago, they killed two men, a woman and two children. In another part of the country they ſtole ſome horſes and carried off a man, but being purſued the horſes were retaken.—The horſes were laden with articles they had plundered the inhabitants of, Indian match coats, &c. &c. all of which fell into the hands of the purſuers.—A ſkirmiſh took place between the ſavages and thoſe who followed them,—no body killed on either ſide."

PROPOSALS,

For Printing by Subscription,

BY

ISAAC COLLINS,

IN TRENTON,

THE

HOLY BIBLE,

CONTAINING

THE OLD and NEW TESTAMENT;

WITH THE

Apocrypha and Marginal Notes.

CONDITIONS.

I. This work, to be contained in one large volume, Quarto, of nine hundred and eighty-four pages, will be reprinted page for page with the Oxford edition, on a beautiful new type, and good paper. An index will be added; and also the Scripture measures, weights and coins.

II. The price to subscribers, for the volume, well bound, four Spanish dollars; one dollar to be paid at the time of subscribing, the remainder on delivery of the book.

III. The work to be put to press as soon as three thousand copies shall be subscribed for, and to be finished without delay.

The Editor has been encouraged, by a number of respectable characters, to offer the above proposals to the public, under a conviction that a handsome American edition of the Bible, in Quarto, will, at this time, be both seasonable and acceptable, as no part of the money will go out of the country.

This consideration, it is hoped, will be an inducement to subscribe, and of course promote the more frequent reading of this most invaluable book in private families. He therefore wishes to attract the attention, and obtain the countenance of people of all denominations; not doubting but that, in the execution of the work, he will be able to give ample satisfaction, both as to its accuracy and neatness.

Subscriptions will be received by Hugh Gaine and Edmund Prior, New-York; by Joseph Crukshank and William Young, Philadelphia; by Townsend and Patton, Baltimore; and by the editor in Trenton.

It is requested, that the leading characters of all the different denominations of Christians in the United States, who may feel disposed to promote this undertaking, will, as early as may be, grant their assistance in procuring subscriptions: and that the several printers of news-papers in the union will be pleased to insert the above proposals in their papers.

To all whom it may concern.

Mr. Isaac Collins has, for many years last past, been, and still is, printer to the state of New-Jersey: Having by this means had the more frequent opportunities to see his work, I have had abundant proof of the accuracy and correctness of his publications, as well as of his remarkable attention to business.

WIL. LIVINGSTON.

Trenton, 18th September, 1788.

Kent Island, January 28, 1789.

L O S T,

FROM Broad Creek, which it is supposed was carried off by the ice, the wind being then at north-east, on Monday morning, the 26th instant, a SCOW, nearly new, about twenty feet long, and eight or nine feet wide, her sides are gum. From the wind being at north-east, it is imagined she drifted down towards Talley's or Thomas's Point. FOUR DOLLARS REWARD will be given for bringing her to Broad Creek, Kent-Island, or TWO DOLLARS if delivered at Annapolis, in care of Mr. John Sands, jun.

14 JAMES O'BRYON.

To be LEASED,

SEVERAL LOTS of GROUND in this city, on the Church circle, and the streets called Tabernacle-street, opposite Mr. James Ringgold's, and Lawyers-street, opposite Mr. John Callahan's. The terms may be known by applying to the subscriber.

JAMES STEWART.

NOTICE.

THE subscriber requests all persons indebted to the estate of HENRY MAY, late of Anne-Arundel county, deceased, upon bond, note or open account, to come in and pay their respective balances; also, that all persons having claims against said deceased, will bring them in legally attested, to 9X RICHARD BEARD, jun. Executor.

May 9, 1789.

ON the application of the trustees of ROBERT CRAIG, the 1st day of January next is limitted and appointed by the chancellor for the creditors of the said Robert Craig, to bring in and declare their respective claims to the said trustees, that the same may be on that day liquidated and adjusted; due notice thereof to be published in Mr. Green's and Mr. Goddard's news-papers.

Test. SAMUEL HARVEY HOWARD,

w6 2 Reg. Cur. Can.

RAN away from the subscriber, a young NEGRO MAN, called DAVY, on the 15th of March, 1789, his dress is an osnabrig shirt, and cotton waistcoat and breeches; it is probable he will change his dress as he has other cloaths; he is an artful, deceiving fellow, about 5 feet 3 or 4 inches high, and stole a large sum of money two or three days before he went off: it is thought he is gone off with his master's servant, ROBERT JACKSON, who is gone away with Joshua Pearce's wife. Whoever takes up and secures the said negro, shall be entitled to EIGHT DOLLARS REWARD.

tf 7 ELIZABETH RAWLINGS.

The beautiful HORSE ROEBUCK,

WILL cover mares this season at the subscriber's plantation in Charles county, at the low price of five pounds currency per mare, and one dollar to the groom, but if the money is paid when the mare is taken away, three pounds, and one dollar to the groom, will be taken in lieu of the five pounds. It is useless to insert his pedigree as it is well known, but it may be seen at his stable. ROEBUCK's stock is remarkable, both for the turf and saddle, I believe equal to any in the state. Good pasturage is provided for mares that come a distance, at two and six-pence per week, and great care will be taken of them; but I will not be answerable for escapes or accidents. 8w

WILLIAM M. WILKINSON.

Charles county, March 26, 1789. 6

VENETIAN,

WILL stand for MARES this season at FRANCIS TOLSON, Esquire's plantation, in Prince-George's county, 5 miles from the ferry opposite Alexandria, at five guineas each mare, and a dollar the groom, or three guineas each mare, and three and ninepence to the groom, if paid by the first of August, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes.—Good grass for mares at half a dollar per week. Venetian is a fine bay, fifteen hands and an half high, with length and bone in proportion; he was bred by Sir James Pennyman, bart. of Yorkshire, and got by Doge, his dam by Jennison Shaftoe Snap, sire of Goldfinder, Gnawpost, Daisy and other good runners, his grand-dam by old Fox; Doge was got by Regulus, son of the Godolphin Arabian, his dam by Crab, his grand dam by Dyer's Dimple, which was got by Leed's Arabian. Venetian, at five years old, won the king's plate at Newcastle, and the fifty pounds for all ages, the same week, beating Mr. Benwick's famous mare Spider Brusher, and several others, fifteen days after he won the king's plate at Carlisle, beating lord Surry's famous horse Bon-Mot, and run second to High Flyer at York.

Signed JOHN KIRKPON, Venetian's Jockey.

THOMAS COATES, the Trainer.

Thirsk, November 26, 1787. 7

ROMULUS,

A BRIGHT bay, nearly sixteen hands high, remarkably strong, handsome and active, will stand this season at Mount Stewart, near South river church, and cover mares at three pounds, and five shillings to the groom. ROMULUS was got by Sweeper, his dam by the imported Ranger, his grand-dam by Ariel, his great-grand-dam by Othello, out of an imported mare. Good pasturage will be provided for mares at 3/6 per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. WHEAT, CORN, OATS or TOBACCO, will be taken instead of the cash at the present market prices. w4 4X

Charles county, April 6, 1789.

ALL persons having any claims against the estate of JOHN EDEN, senior, Esquire, late of St. Mary's county, deceased, are hereby requested to exhibit the same, that they may be paid; suits will be commenced against all persons indebted to the estate whether on protested bills of exchange, bond, note, open account or otherwise, neglecting and with-holding payment, after six weeks notice in the Baltimore and Annapolis papers. 6w

6X WALTER STONE, Admr. de bonis non, of JOHN EDEN, senior, Esquire.

NORTHERN ECLIPSE,

WILL stand for mares this season at Londontown, near Annapolis, at two guineas each mare, and a dollar to the groom, the money to be sent with the mares. Pasturage for mares at half a dollar per week, but will not be answerable for accidents or escapes. This horse is a chesnut, fifteen hands and an inch high, not handsome, but he has some of the best English running blood in his veins, with bone and action. 6w

JOHN CRAGGS.

NORTHERN ECLIPSE was got by O'Kelly's famous Eclipse, and out of Ameryllis. Ameryllis was got by Adolphus, son of Regulus, and out of Lodge's roan mare, which was got by Partner (the first and most famous stallion then in England) her dam by Baboon, which was got by Badger, her grand-dam by old Traveller, which was sire to the duke of Cleveland's Dainty Davy, which won successively five gold cups at Richmond, in Yorkshire, her great-grand-dam by Snake, then the most capital stallion of his day. This is a true pedigree, as witness my hand,

W. NEWBURN, the Breeder,

Cleveland, Yorkshire.

March 9, 1789. 6X

FRIENDSHIP,

A HANDSOME full bred horse, stands this season at the subscriber's plantation, in Prince-George's county, about seven miles from Bladensburg, and the same distance from Snowden's works, and will cover mares at six dollars each, he is a good formed, full fifteen hands high, with length and bone in proportion, and is six years old; he was bred by William Mitchel, Esquire, of Virginia, and was got by Apollo, the property of colonel Henry Lee, out of an imported full bred mare. Apollo was got by general Sprigwpoth's noted Apollo. FRIENDSHIP has run two matches, and won both easy. Few horses in this state are equal to him in beauty and form. He covers at half price, owing to the scarcity of cash. tf

CHARLES DUVALL.

N. B. Thirty-five shillings will be received if the money be paid by the first day of September next.

Charles county, April 14, 1789.

ALL persons having claims against the estate of certain JOHN JORDAN, late of Charles county, deceased, are desired to bring the same in to the subscriber legally authenticated, and all persons indebted to said estate are desired to make immediate payment, to 3 JOHN THOMAS, Administrator.

Twenty Dollars Reward.

RAN away, from the subscriber's quarter in Loudon county, early in last month, a negro man named GEORGE, he is about 20 years of age, about 5 feet 7 or 8 inches high, his nostrils are remarkably wide; he sometimes complains of a sore on the bottom of one of his feet, which makes him a little lame; he is a likely sensible fellow: He had on a green jacket and overalls, osnabrig shirt, an old hat, shoes and stockings, and took with him a Dutch blanket, a blue broad cloth coat and breeches, a blue jacket without sleeves, and sundry other cloaths.—He has been seen near this town since he ran away. Whoever will apprehend the aforesaid negro, and deliver him to the subscriber, or secure him in any gaol, so that he may be got again, shall receive the above reward, and if taken out of this state and brought home, all charges paid.

PHILIP R. FENDALL

Alexandria, Sept. 30, 1788. 24

Annapolis, February 18, 1789.

For SALE,

A PLANTATION, on the north side of Severn river, containing about 400 acres, under good fencing, bounding on the river Severn, about five miles distant from Annapolis, with a very good framed dwelling house, with brick ends and cellar, and very convenient out houses thereon, an orchard of excellent young fruit trees.

A discription of the soil, wood, timber and situation, are thought unnecessary, as no person would purchase who would not examine the premises. This property will be sold for any state or continental securities, good assigned bonds, or six years credit on bond with security, upon the regular payment of interest at five per cent. per annum. Apply to 13 JAMES RINGGOLD.

A VENDUE STORE.

IN the house formerly occupied by the late Mr. JOHN JOHNSON, the subscriber to sell by auction (on a low commission) takes in STORE and HOUSEHOLD GOODS of every description. As the situation of the house is in every respect calculated for the business, which, together with his utmost exertions to render every satisfaction on his part, by his punctuality, secrecy, and that dispatch which circumstances will admit of, he hopes to merit the approbation of a discerning public, tf

Who am their's,

Much devoted to please,

3 MICHAEL SHANNON.

N. B. The days of sale will be on Wednesdays and Saturdays, and goods taken in at any time.

Annapolis, May 4, 1789.

THERE is at the plantation of NEHEMIAH MOXLY, living near Crow's mill, in Anne-Arundel county, taken up as a stray, a dark bay HORSE, about eight years old, trots and gallops, shod all round, has a small star in his forehead, not branded, about fifteen hands high, rather low in flesh, and appears to have been foundered. The owner may have him again on proving property and paying charges. 2

April 30, 1789.

By virtue of a writ of fieri facias to me directed by the general court of the western shore of the state of Maryland, will be EXPOSED to SALE, on Saturday the 30th day of May next, at 11 o'clock, forenoon, for cash only,

THE PLANTATION whereon BENJAMIN HOWARD, former collector of one of the districts of Anne-Arundel county, now dwells, containing about 380 acres. The above property taken for the use of the state, by ts
